

Movements towards a Feminist Future

Womankind is an international women's rights organisation and funder. We work with feminist movements, women's rights groups, organisations, networks and activists across the world to end gender inequality

OUR VISION

A world where all women, girls and people of all genders enjoy equal rights and freedoms and live with joy, choice and dignity

STRONG, AUTONOMOUS WOMEN'S RIGHTS MOVEMENTS LEAD TO...

Global and regional institutions and national governments that respect and protect women's rights

Diverse women, girls and people of all genders enjoying human rights without discrimination

Women, girls and people of all genders who are aware and claim their human rights and work collectively to challenge gender inequalities at home, communities and workplaces

TOGETHER WITH OUR PARTNERS, WE STRENGTHEN WOMEN'S MOVEMENTS BY...

Developing and supporting intersectional approaches

Connecting within movements to build relationships

Self and collective care for women's rights

Women's movements
accessing flexible funding

Collaborating on feminist research and documentation

Learning and exchange by connecting women activists

Supporting feminist leadership of activists, WROs and movements

Communications and ICT support

THROUGH COLLECTIVE ACTION WITH WOMEN'S RIGHTS ORGANISATIONS
WE ADVANCE...

Anti-racism and decolonisation

Participatory grant-making

Unrestricted and flexible funds

Accepting uncertainty and unpredictability

WE BELIEVE...

Women's rights organisations are how movements are built, supported and grow and are key to achieving women's rights

When women join together in movements, their voices are stronger and they create long-lasting change in their societies
